PREFACE

AMERICAN BOOK-PRICES CURRENT enters its 55th year with this volume, which reports the auction activities in literary properties of seven firms for the season 1948–49, August to July. 117 sales are reported for this period, and 13,210 single lots were eligible for the annual record. From the $5.00 figure (the minimum price recorded in AMERICAN BOOK-PRICES CURRENT) the season had books in all ranges up to $24,000 (Aesop, Mythologie, Basle, 1501 — in a Maioli binding), and, in the field of Autographs & Manuscripts, up to $54,000 (for the fifth and final holograph manuscript of "The Gettysburg Address").

The outstanding sales at the Parke-Bernet Galleries were the Fritz Kreisler collection of early printed books and illuminated manuscripts, January 27–28, 174 lots, $120,272; the Frank Capra collection of first editions, April 26–27, 380 lots, $66,948; the fifth and final holograph manuscript by Abraham Lincoln (the Bliss copy) of "The Gettysburg Address", April 27, $54,000. The Parke-Bernet Galleries also held a rich sale of illuminated manuscripts, bird books, autographs, etc., the property of a Continental collector and of other owners, November 29–30, 505 lots, $77,729.

One of the richest sales of the decade was held at the Kende Galleries on December 7–8 when the "Paris" library formed by the late Cortlandt Field Bishop was dispersed. This collection, the property of Mr. and Mrs. Shirley Falcke, comprised 332 lots and realized a total of $325,900. Other French and English books from the C. F. Bishop collection (194 lots) were sold by the same firm in January.

The Swann Auction Galleries offered two fine collections of medical books among the twenty-five sales held on their premises during the season. The first collection (931 lots) was that of the reference library of the late Dr. Victor Robinson, sold January 26–27. The second was the medical library (291 lots) of Dr. Alfred Brown, of the University of Nebraska Medical College, sold on March 31. — American Book Auction, 18 sales, City Book Auction, 38 sales, and Freeman & Company, with a light year of only 2 sales, together provided about 3,500 single entries at and above the $5.00 figure. A few items of unusual interest in American Literature of the 19th century are also recorded from the sale of the library of Isabel Farnandis, sold at Galton, Orsburn Company, Baltimore.

Some of the notable items from the KREISLER sale: Apuleius, Opera, Rome, 1469, $2,250; Biblia Pauperum [a Block Book, Netherlands, ca. 1460], 31 leaves, $3,400; Cortez, Carta Tercera, Seville, 1523, $2,700; Ortiz, Los Tratados, Seville, 1493, $2,400; Ptolemy, Cosmographia, Ulm, 1482, $2,400; Strabo, Geographiae, Rome, 1473, $3,800. — From the CAPRA sale: Boccaccio, The Decameron, London, 1620, $1,950; Chaucer, Canterbury Tales, [Westminster: Caxton 1478], 102 leaves only, $4,000; Dante, Divina Commedia, Foligno, 1472, $9,000; Milton, Paradise Lost, 1667, $2,300; North's Plutarch, London, 1579, $2,100.

From the BISHOP sale: Maioli binding, Aesop, Mythologie, Basle, 1501, $24,000; Ars Moriendi, Paris, 1492, $14,000; Grolier binding, Castiglione, Il Libro del Cortegiano, Venice, 1528, $4,100; Moliere, Oeuvres, 6 vols, Paris, 1734 (with 6 original drawings by Boucher, and with a Ds by Moliere), $20,250. — From the ROBINSON medical collection: Index Medicus, complete, 1879-1945, 97 vols, $950; Morgan, Medical Schools in America, Phila., 1765, $150. — From the BROWN collection: Gilbertus Anglicus, Compendium Medicine, Lugduni, 1510, $190; Ketham, Wundartznei, Strassburg, 1531, $300; Mesue, Opera Medicinalia, Venice, 1495, $200; Vesalius, Opera Omnia, Lugd. Batav., 1725, $130.

In the field of Americana, the second and final part of the Western Americana collection of the late Herbert S. Auerbach was sold on October 25-26. The 857 lots realized $14,080, and included a copy of Joseph Smith, Book of Commandments, Zion, 1833, $1,550. Early New England Americana was represented in the sale of the Anson Phelps Stokes collection, November 15-16, 342 lots, $15,604. Among the books were: Clark, Ill News from New England, 1652, $510; Lechford, Plain Dealing, or Newes from New England, 1642, $275; Roger Williams, Mr. Cottons Letter Answered, 1644, $600. Both sales were held at the Parke-Bernet Galleries.

Two of the auction houses went through changes of historic interest during the past season. The Kende Galleries, Inc., was reorganized in the fall of 1948, with Shirley Falcke as President and Herbert A. Kende as Vice-President, and new quarters were occupied at 119-121 West 57th Street, New York 19, N. Y. The firm plans to increase its activities in the disposal of literary properties.

The summer of 1949 saw the end of the building at 30 East 57th Street, New York, which was the home of the Parke-Bernet Galleries since 1939. the building was completed in 1922 by Thomas E. Kirby who in 1883 had founded the American Art Association. In 1923 Mr. Kirby sold the AAA for $500,000 to Cortlandt Field Bishop, who five years later for a like sum acquired the Anderson Galleries, and then merged the two houses. The end of the AAA-AG came in 1939 with its bankruptcy. Its assets and quarters were then taken over by the Parke-Bernet Galleries, an organization formed in January 1938 by officers and experts of the parent concern. Parke-Bernet Galleries is now temporarily housed in the former Brummer Gallery, 110 East 58th Street, New York 22, N. Y., awaiting completion of its new building at 980 Madison Avenue, New York 21, N. Y., which will extend from 76th to 77th streets.

This volume follows the arrangement of the preceding annuals. For the uninitiated a full explanation will be found in "Guide to Use", on pp. viii and ix.

GUIDE TO USE

Listing of Entries

Simple Arrangement

Clear, modern type, the liberal use of spacing, and uniformity in reporting enable the user to locate all entries quickly. The books reported are indexed alphabetically by author in every case possible. Some items

Anonyma and Pseudonyma

are entered by title (when author is not to be found in standard reference works). Subject entries (Costume, States, Trials, etc.) are cross-indexed. Books under headings other than Press Books and Club Publications are arranged alphabetically by title. Press books and Club Publications (with some minor exceptions) are under the name of the issuing Press or Club, arranged by author.

Cross-Index

Press Books

Simple Format

Easy to Read

The main headings, (author, or title, or subject), are in boldface caps and the entries beneath are listed in boldface upper and lower case as follows: (1) Title; (2) Place of Publication, and on some items, Publisher or Printer; (3) Date of Publication. Following in order, in lightface, are: Edition, Size, Binding, Description (defects, limit notices, inscriptions, etc.), and last, the code letter of the auction house, the number of the sale, the catalog number of the lot reported, and the price-realized.

Uniformity

Main Entry

The main entries are preceded by a one-em dash.

"Anr copy"

Duplicate entries of the same work are headed "Anr copy", and set in lightface, so as not to interfere with the main entries. Subsequent editions of the same work are headed "Anr Ed," followed by place of printing and date, all in boldface.

"Anr Ed"

Bindings

Binding terms and names of binders are given when necessary to relate price to the entry recorded. Provenance is also recorded to enable users to note recurrences of certain items.

Provenance

Price Level

All prices recorded are on the even dollar. The dropping of odd-penny prices as well as the prices under five dollars was in response to subscribers' wishes. The correctness of this policy has been established by the trade, library, and collecting circles.

Grouping of Like Copies

Comparison of Issue

On duplicate entries, like copies (like as to issue, binding, and condition) are grouped, rather than placed in the order in which sold. Thus, if a fine copy of a work was sold in sale P5, a fair or poor copy of the same title in sale P 10, and yet another fine copy in sale P 15, the order of entry is P5, P 15, and P 10, with descriptions as to the excellencies or defects of each.

Comparison of Condition, etc.

Autographs & Mss, Broadsides, & Maps

Autographs and Manuscripts are grouped together in a separate alphabetical index (Part II). This method reduces the confusion that prevails when they are listed in the same alphabet as the books. Broadsides (Part III) and Maps (Part IV), are also placed in separate sections for convenient reference.

Listing of Sales

The Auction houses are arranged in alphabetical order and the sales of each house are arranged in chronological order. The "named" sales of each house are listed in alphabetical order on pages following the List of Season's Sales.

Quick Guide to Sales

Coding of Entries

Each entry is keyed and priced—for example, A2 (15) $10, means: the second sale of American Book Auction, lot number fifteen in the sale catalog, price realized for the lot, ten dollars; P 15 (302) $50, means: the fifteenth sale of Parke-Bernet Galleries, lot number three hundred two in the sale catalog, price realized fifty dollars. The initials of the auction houses are used in the code, and this enables the user to tell at a glance where an item was sold.

Simple Coding

Abbreviations are of the commonest kind. A list of these appears on page xxxi.

Many errors in the original sales catalogs have been corrected, and all corrections announced by the galleries have been entered. [Reports of any errors which have escaped us will be appreciated by the editor.]

"In this connection, we would be remiss not to acknowledge in print our colossal debt to HOUSE OF EL DIEFF (Lew D. Feldman), the foremost dealer in the world specializing in detective first editions and manuscripts. Without the help of HOUSE OF EL DIEFF these choice copies could never have been gathered under one ratiocinative roof."

N. S. A. C. HAS COME OF AGE!

In less than two years the National Society of Autograph Collectors

has become an established factor in the historical autograph field. Daily inquiries pertaining to manuscripts are received from libraries, universities, and historical societies. In addition, letters from abroad indicate that the Society is well-known outside continental limits.

The AUTOGRAPH COLLECTORS' JOURNAL, a quarterly publication, reaches collectors, dealers, librarians, archivists alike. It is the market place for all interested in autographs.

NSAC has already stimulated interest in autographic material throughout the country. Watch for the NSAC exhibit of "Great Americans" at the 1950 National Antiques Show at Madison Square Garden, March 6-12.

The Third Annual Meeting and Exhibition of NSAC will be held May 1, 2, 3 at the Library of Congress in Washington, D. C. Notable speakers and fine displays will mark this meeting which will aid the Library in the celebration of its Sesquiecentennial.

There are three classes of membership: Annual—$5; Contributing—$25; Life—$100. All three types of membership are entitled to all privileges of the NSAC, including the receipt of The Autograph Collectors' Journal.

For Further Information, Write:
RICHARD MAASS, Secretary

Address delivered at the dedication of the Cemetery at Gettysburg.

Four score and seven years ago our fathers brought forth on this continent, a new nation, conceived in Liberty, and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal.
Now we are highly resolved that these dead shall not have died in vain— that this nation,
under God, shall have a new birth of freedom— and that government of the people, by the people, for the people, shall not perish from the earth.

Abraham Lincoln.

November 19, 1863.

Reduced facsimile of the opening and closing portions of the fifth and final Ms of "The Gettysburg Address" by Abraham Lincoln. Written on 3 pp., (8 by 10 inches), ruled paper. The Ms, known as "The Bliss Copy" was sold at the Parke-Bernet Galleries on 27 April 1949. Price: $54,000.
